

May 1, 1939.

Mr. John Borican,
272 Manhattan Ave.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Borican:

I have not heard from you in answer to my last letter, but I realize that it is due to the fact that you have been in the West.

I am writing at this time to ask you to let me know at once how many people you would like to invite in your party to the Opening so that I may reserve box seats for them. You have no doubt received the letter in which I told you that our Opening Game had been postponed from Sunday, May 7th to Sunday, May 14th.

Will appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ